GATEVIEW, David Koyzis, 2013

A faith-ful shep-herd is the LORD; I shall not be in need. In Though I may walk a - mid the threat of death's im-pend-ing doom, no A tab - le you have set for me be - fore my ev - ery foe, your pas - tures green he lets me lie, by qui - et streams will lead. My fear shall ov - er - take my days, nor dread of dark' - ning gloom. For prec - ious oil an - oints my head; my cup shall ov - er - flow. Your wear - y soul does he re - store; and in his right - eous ways he you are ev - er near at hand, your pres - ence close to me. Your good - ness and your mer - cy shall pur - sue me all my days; and gives me guid - ance for the sake of his name all my days. guid - ing rod and sav - ing staff are there to com - fort me.

in the dwel - ling of the LORD I'll live with him al - ways.
