1. Of jus - tice and fi - del - i - ty will I sing;
2. In - teg - ri - ty shall be the path I pur - sue;
3. I hate the deeds that faith - less peo - ple per - form;
4. The one who slan - ders neigh - bour sec - re - tive - ly
5. On all the faith - ful I will look with fav - our
6. No one de - ceiv - ing shall be find - ing a place
7. Each morn - ing so to judge the wick - ed I'll stand, to you, O LORD, my songs of praise will I bring,

with - in my house I vow to give all to you.
to all their ev - ils I will nev - er con - form.
I will bring to an end de - fin - i - tive - ly.
that they who dwell with me might nev - er wav - er
with - in my house and man - i - fest sin - ful ways;
to put an end to ev - il through - out the land, and to your right - eous ways I'll firm - ly cling. When will you come?

I will not place what - ev - er is un - true be - fore my eyes.
My heart will not let wick - ed ways de - form, but shun all sin.
The haught - y heart and pride - ful eyes that see I'll not a - bide.
from liv - ing blame - less lives and for ev - er serve what is right.
none who have lied re - main be - fore my face, but shall de - part.
that from the LORD's cit - y they should be banned for ev - er more.
