9. Now may the glor-y that the LORD dis-plays en-dure for ev-er and for end-less days.

May he de - light in what his hands have fash - ioned, who sparks vol - can - oes and the earth - quake's pas - sion.

All of my life I'll sing to praise the LORD; while I draw breath, my God will be a - dored.

May he be pleased to hear my med-i - ta - tion, for in the LORD I find my jub-i - la - tion.

Let sin-ners be re-moved from all the earth, and wick-ed van-ish from their place of birth.

O my soul, of - fer to the LORD your prais - es.

Praise to the LORD! Sing to the LORD your prais - es!
