

Song of Mary

Luke 1:46-55

Tune: SOUTH BEND, 1987 (David T. Koyzis)

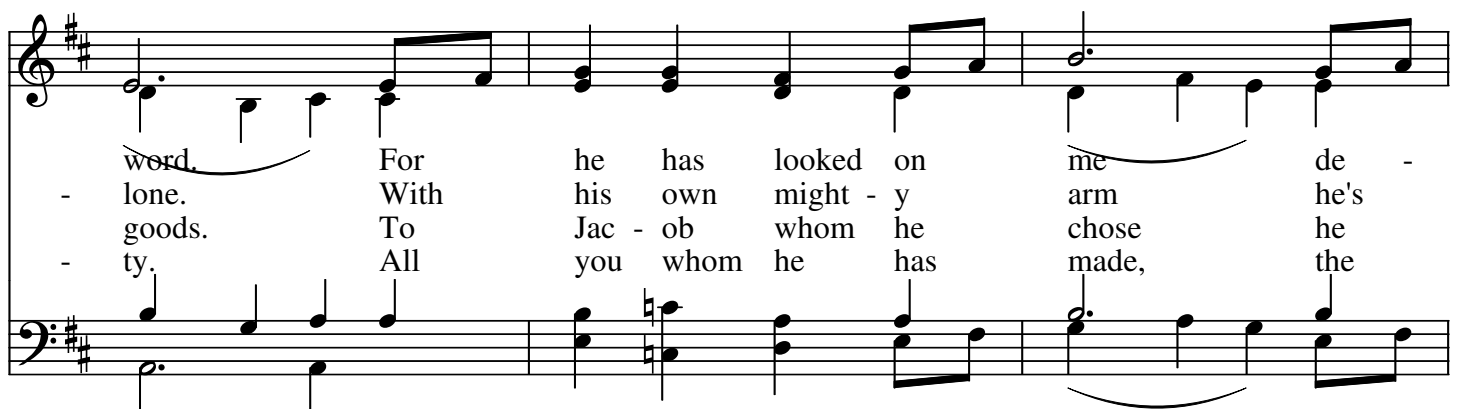

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. My soul de - clares a - loud the great - ness of the
2. Great mar - vels he has done, whose ho - ly name we
3. The hung - ry he has filled with sat - is - fy - ing
4. He bless - es Ab - ra - ham and his pos - ter - i -

Lord; to God who saves my spi - rit sings, re - joic - ing in his own; his mer - cy ev - er flows to all that wor - ship God a - foods; the wealth - y he has sent a - way de - prived of world - ly
- ty, as to our fore - bears - he has prom - ised for e - ter - ni - word. For he has looked on me de -

- lone. With his own might - y arm he's goods. To Jac - ob whom he chose he
- ty. All you whom he has made, the

- spite my hum - ble - ness; and from now on all peo - ple shall rebid the proud de - part; he's cast the ty - rant from his throne and lends his gra - cious aid, ac - cord - ing as his mer - cies rest on Tri - une God a - dore; praise Fath - er, Son and Spi - rit too, both

- call my bless - ed - ness.
 raised the low - ly heart.
 all that he has made.
 now and ev - er - more.