1. Whole - heart - ed thanks I give you, Lord,
2. When all my foes were in re - treat,
3. All wick - ed na - tions you re - buke,
4. See that the Lord reigns ev - er - more,
5. God is a strong - hold for the weak

I will tell of your won - drous deeds.
stumb - ling, per - ish - ing at your sight,
ev - er - more blot - ting out their names.
he sets up his ma - jes - tic throne;
and a ref - uge in troub - led times.

In you will I ex - ult and be glad;
you did de - fend me and up - hold me,
Their cit - ies van - ished - ru - ined for good;
with right - eous - ness he judg - es the world,
Called by your name, our trust is in you,

O Most High, I will sing your prais - es.
up - on your throne you gave me just - ice.
their mem - ory nev - er will sur - vive them.
he rules all peo - ple with his just - ice.
you've not for - sak - en those who seek you.
