

Psalm 9:11-20

Tune: Strasbourg, Geneva, 1542; Lyons, 1547

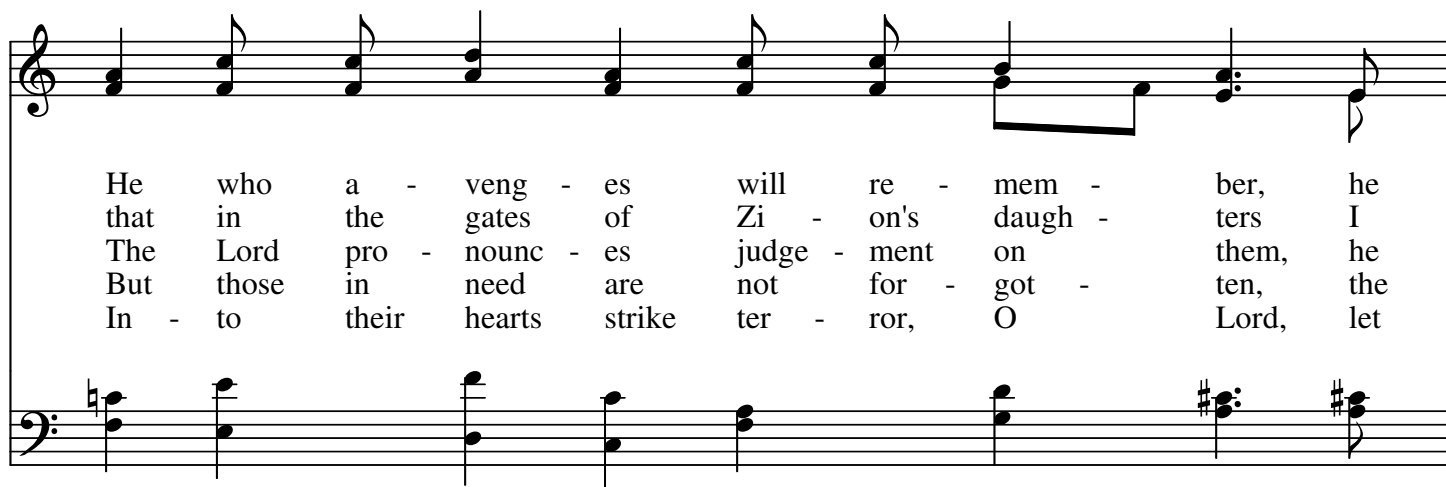

$\text{♩} = 80$

6.Sing songs of praise to Zi - on's Lord,
7.Pit - y me, Lord, look on my plight,
8.The na - tions sink in - to the pit,
9.May all the wick - ed come to grief!
10.Rise, Lord, let not mere men pre - vail,

tell the na - tions of all his works.
bring me back from the gates of death
caught in snares they them - selves have laid.
God - less na - tions shall be brought down.
for all na - tions must come to trial.

He who a - veng - es will re - mem - ber, he
that in the gates of Zi - on's daugh - ters I
The Lord pro - nounc - es judge - ment on them, he
But those in need are not for - got - ten, the
In - to their hearts strike ter - ror, O Lord, let

is not deaf to the af - flict - ed.
 might re - joice in your sal - va - tion.
 traps the wick - ed with their own works.
 poor man's hope will nev - er per - ish.
 na - tions know they are but mor - tal.