

Psalm 38:1-9

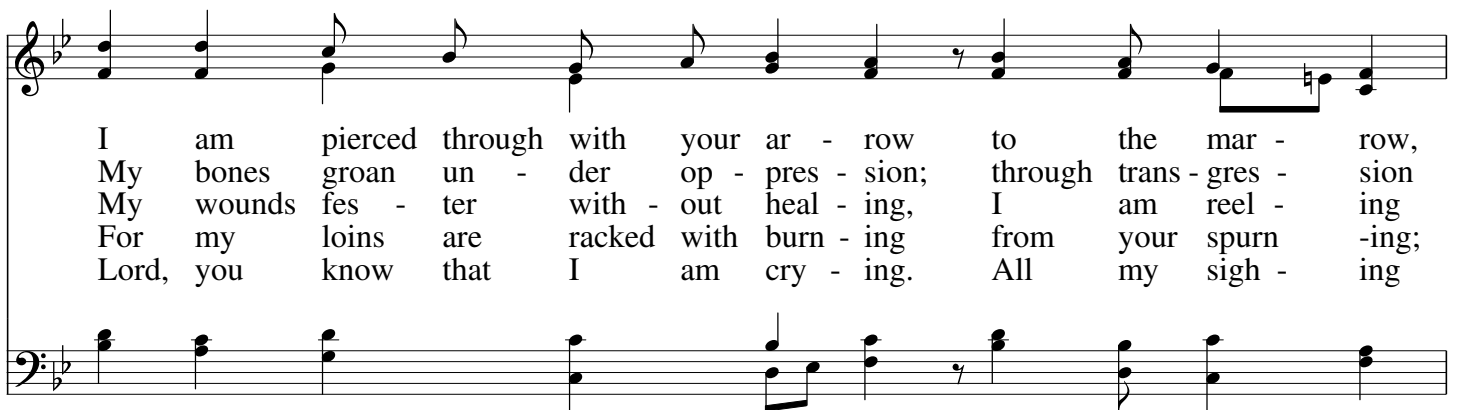

Strasbourg, Geneva 1542/Geneva, 1551

1.LORD, re - buke me not in ang - er, and no long - er
2.Ill - ness sore has ov - er - tak - en, I'm for - sak - en
3.My in - i - qui - ties flood o'er me, and be - fore me
4.I am bowed low in my griev - ing, scarce be - liev - ing
5.Crushed and spent, now heed my moan - ing. I am groan - ing, dis - ci - pline me in fu - ry.

due to your in - dig - na - tion.
all my sins are a burd - en.
that I'll cease from my mourn - ing.
for my heart is in tu - mult.

I am pierced through with your ar - row to the mar - row,
My bones groan un - der op - pres - sion; through trans - gres - sion
My wounds fes - ter with - out heal - ing, I am reel - ing
For my loins are racked with burn - ing from your spurn - ing;
Lord, you know that I am cry - ing. All my sigh - ing for your hand has weighed on me.

my guilt is too great to bear.
from my mad and foolish ways.
there's no sound - ness in my flesh.
is not hid - den from your face.
