

Psalm 66

1543; Geneva, 1551

1. Joy - ful - ly shout to God our sav - iour,
2. Come, see what God has now ac - comp - lished,
3. Now bless our God, you earth - ly peo - ples;
4. Peo - ple have tram - pled us in an - ger;
5. There will I of - fer with thanks - giv - ing
6. If I had nour - ished sin with - in me, all those who dwell up - on the earth.

his deeds to all hu - man - i - ty:
let all your praise to him re - sound, you've put us through ad - vers - i - ty.
my con - se - crat - ed sac - ri - fice:
the Lord would not have heard my cry.

Sing to his name in ce - le - bra - tion, dry - ing the land be - neath the wat - ers
for he keeps us a - mong the liv - ing Yet you in mer - cy have re - freshed us, cat - tle and goats grate - ful - ly giv - en,
But tru - ly God has deigned to lis - ten,

prais - ing his glo - ry with your mirth.
 that they might pass through harm - less - ly.
 and placed our feet on stab - le ground.
 grant - ing us grace a - bun - dant - ly.
 whose scent as - cends to pa - ra - dise.
 at - tend - ing to my prayer on high.

Con - fess to God: "Your deeds are might - y;
 There we re - joiced in his de - live - rance,
 You, God, have tried us, much as sil - ver
 Now will I come in - to your tem - ple
 Come, all who fear our God and lis - ten,
 Bles - sings and prais - es be up - on him,

your foes be - fore you bow in fear.
 his sov - ereign power in our de - fence.
 is test - ed in the fie - ry heat:
 to pay the vows that I have made,
 for I will tell what he has done.
 our God who did not turn his face

Now all the world with songs of prais - ing
 He watch - es ov - er eve - ry na - tion, you gave us ov - er to af - flic - tion,
 those which I ut - tered when in troub - le,
 I cried a - loud to him, re - joic - ing, far from the prayer I breathed in an - guish ex - tols your name from far and near."

 foil - ing the reb - els' ill in - tents.
 bring - ing the net a - round our feet.
 prom - is - es made when sore a - fraid.
 with songs of praise up - on my tongue.
