

Psalm 76

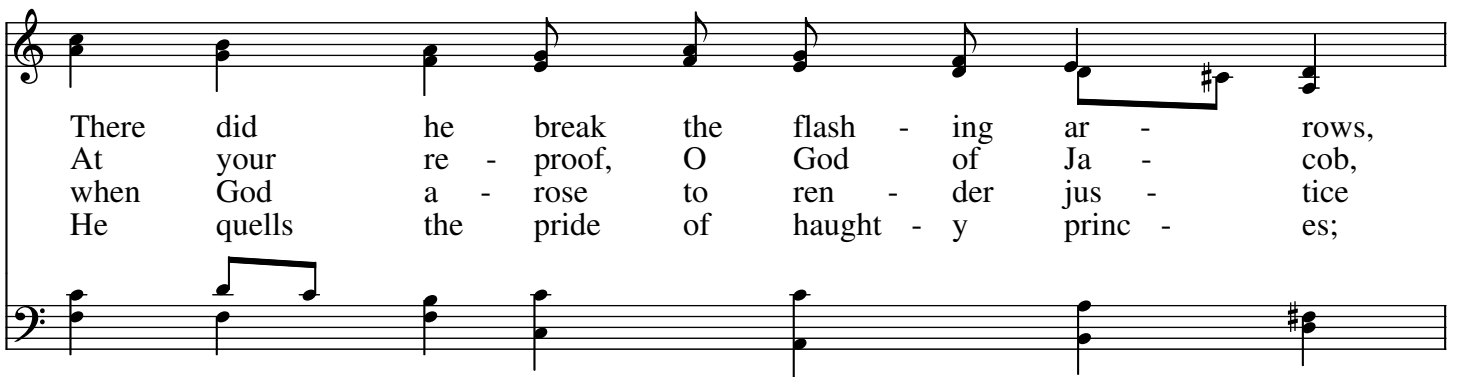

Geneva, 1551

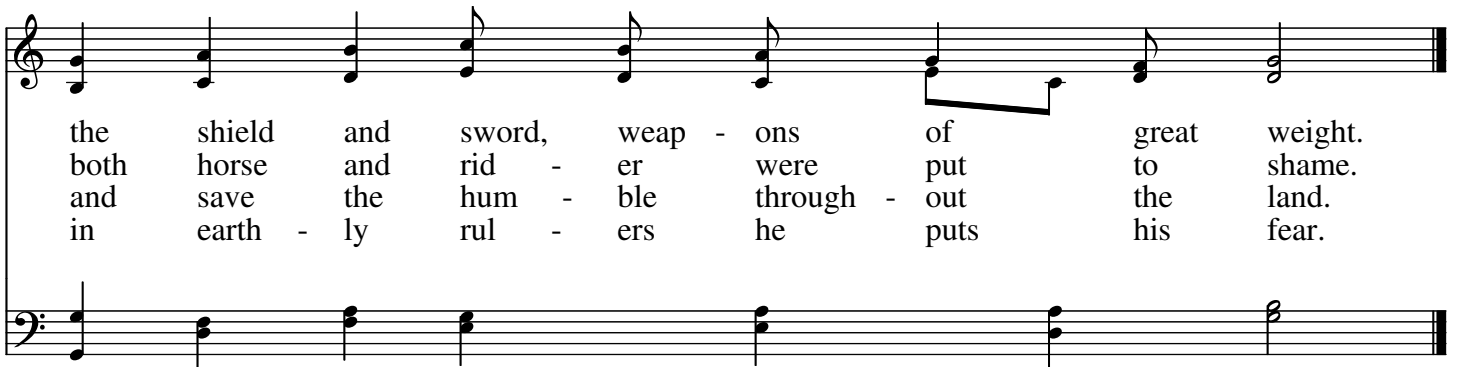

1. In Jud - ah's land our God is known; his name in Is - ra - el is great.
2. Glor - ious are you, more lof - ty still than all the moun - tains rich with game.
3. You, ev - en you, are held in awe; your fur - ious wrath who can with - stand?
4. Yet hu - man an - ger sounds your praise, rem - nants of wrath like clothes you wear.

In Sa - lem is his dwel - ling found, his own a - bode in Zi - on's gate.
Stout - heart - ed men are robbed of spoil; they sleep in death, their limbs are lame.
From heaven you hand your judge - ment down; still - ness and fear have filled the land,
Per - form your vows made to the LORD; let all who fear him trib - ute bear.

There did he break the flash - ing ar - rows,
At your re - proof, O God of Ja - cob,
when God a - rose to ren - der jus - tice
He quells the pride of haught - y princ - es;

the shield and sword, weap - ons of great weight.
both horse and rid - er were put to shame.
and save the hum - ble through - out the land.
in earth - ly rul - ers he puts his fear.
