1. Judg - ing a - mong di - vine pre - tend - ers,
2. "Blind - ly you grope a - bout and stum - ble, in coun - cil God his ver - dict rend - ers: "How while earth's foun - da - tions start to crum - ble. Gods long," says he, "shall wick - ed - ness be fav - oured ov - er right - eous - ness?

you may think your - selves to be, yet you shall taste mor - tal - i - ty.

Give just - ice to the poor and need - y, Like earth - ly kings whose days are num - bered, res - cue the help-less from the greed-y. Treat wid-ows as is right and fair, death's claim on you will not be cum - bered." Rise up, O God, and judge the earth, de - fend all orph - ans in your care.

to you the na - tions owe their birth.
