

Psalm 95

Tune: Strasbourg, Geneva, 1542; Lyons, 1548

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. Come, praise the Lord and be joy - ful,
2. He holds earth's depths in his own hand;
3. Come, let us bow down be - fore him
4. If on - ly you would at - tend him:
5. "Through for - ty years of re - bel - lion

ac - claim - ing our sal - va - tion's Rock, the moun - tain peaks a - bove our heads and kneel be - fore the might - y God,
"O hard - en not your stub - born hearts
these peo - ple would not know my ways;

and come be - fore him with thanks - giv - ing .
be - long to him, for he has made them .
who is our Mak - er and Sus - tain - er .
as once you did with - in the des - ert .
their hearts a - way from me would wan - der .

Praise him with jub - i - lant mus - ic,
 The rest - less sea he cre - a - ted,
 For God a - lone is our Fath - er;
 That day your un - faith - ful for - bears
 So then I swore in my an - ger

for God is King a - bove all gods ;
 and all the land be - low our feet ;
 we are the peo - ple whom he guides ,
 re - belled and put me to the test ,
 that none of this re - bel - lious lot

his rule is ov - er all cre - a - tion.
 our gra - cious God has wise - ly fash - ioned.
 the flock that he for ev - er pas - tures.
 though they had seen my man - y won - ders.
 would reach a rest - ful hab - i - ta - tion.
