

Psalm 96

Tune: Geneva, 1562

1. Sing to the Lord, O sing a new song!
2. Great is the Lord and worthy of praise.
3. Give to the Lord, you clans of the earth--
4. The Lord is King! Tell every nation!
5. Let all the fields exult in their Lord!

Sing, all the earth, and praise the Lord's name!
A - bove all gods he is to be feared;
our Lord who reigns in glo - ry and power--
He made the earth; it can - not be moved.
Let all the wood - lands sing out his praise!

Tell his sal - va - tion day to day; let all the world his glo - ries know;
for id - ol gods are with - out power. The skies were made by God a - lone;
give him the hon - our due his name. Bring your ob - la - tion to his throne.
His just - ice flows to all the earth. Let heav'n re - joice, the earth be glad!
Sing to the Lord, for he will come to judge the world with e - qui - ty his marv - els tell a - mong the peo - ples splen - dour and glo - ry are be - fore him.

O earth, be - fore his pres - ence trem - ble.
Let o - cean thun - der forth his prais - es!
and eve - ry nat - ion with his just - ice.
