

Psalm 98

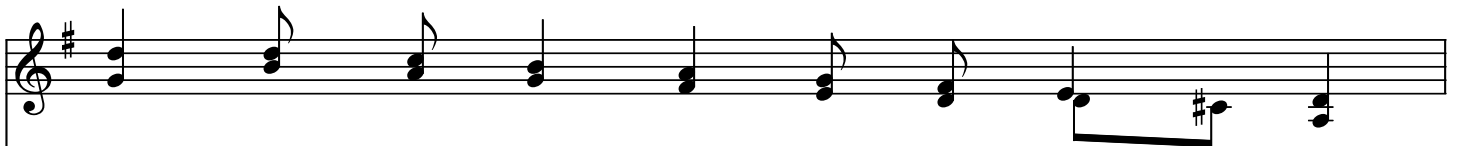

Tune: 1543; Geneva, 1551

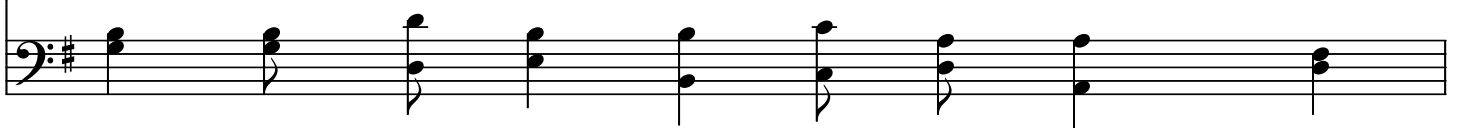

1. Sing to the Lord, O sing a new song for all the marv - els he has done;
2. To ev - ery cor - ner of cre - a - tion God's sav - ing power is man - i - fest;
3. Let o - cean thun - der forth his prais - es and all who dwell up - on the earth;

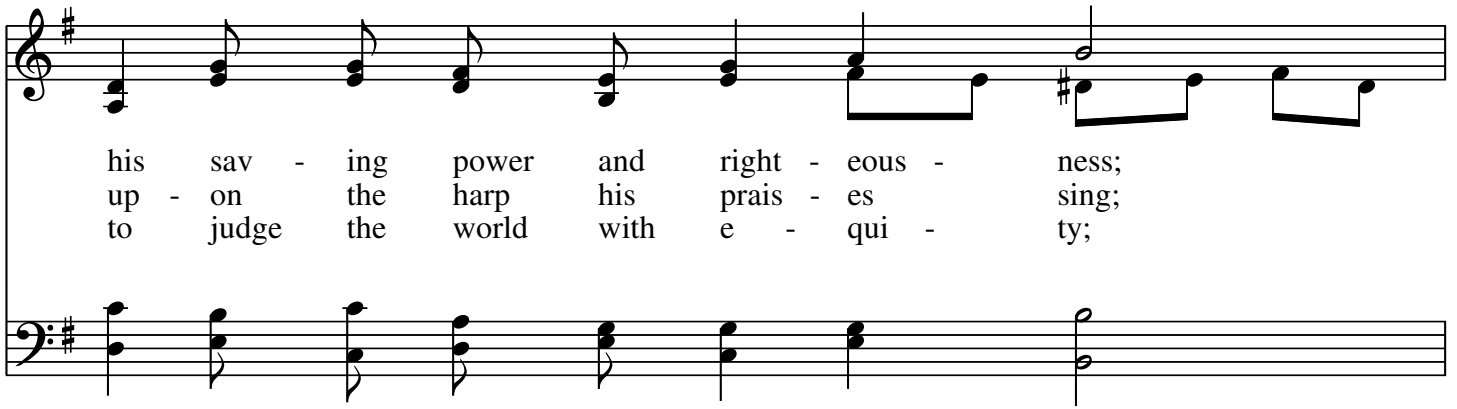

he with his arm so strong and ho - ly sal - va - tion's vic - to - ry has won.
all earth - ly crea - tures, praise the Lord God and sing for joy at his be - hest.
let riv - ers clap in ju - bi - la - tion and moun - tains shout a - loud with mirth.

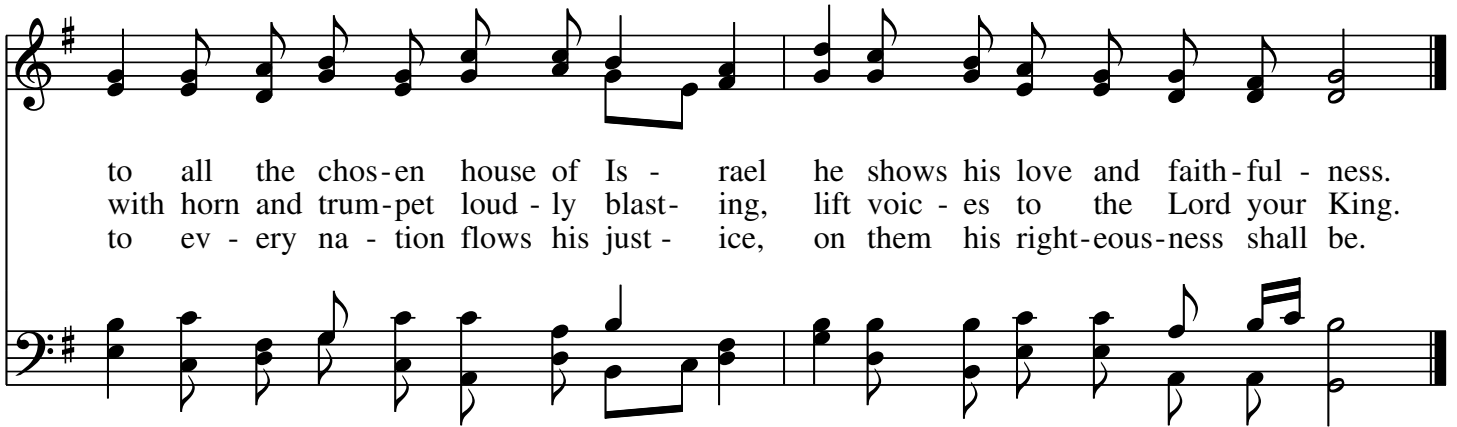

The Lord re - veals to all the peo - ples
Shout to the Lord with joy - ful mus - ic, Sing to the Lord, for he is com - ing

his sav - ing power and right - eous - ness;
up - on the harp his prais - es sing;
to judge the world with e - qui - ty;

to all the chos-en house of Is - rael he shows his love and faith-ful - ness.
with horn and trum-pet loud - ly blast- ing, lift voic - es to the Lord your King.
to ev - ery na - tion flows his just - ice, on them his right-eous-ness shall be.