

Psalm 111

Tune: Strasbourg, Geneva, 1542; Lyons, 1548

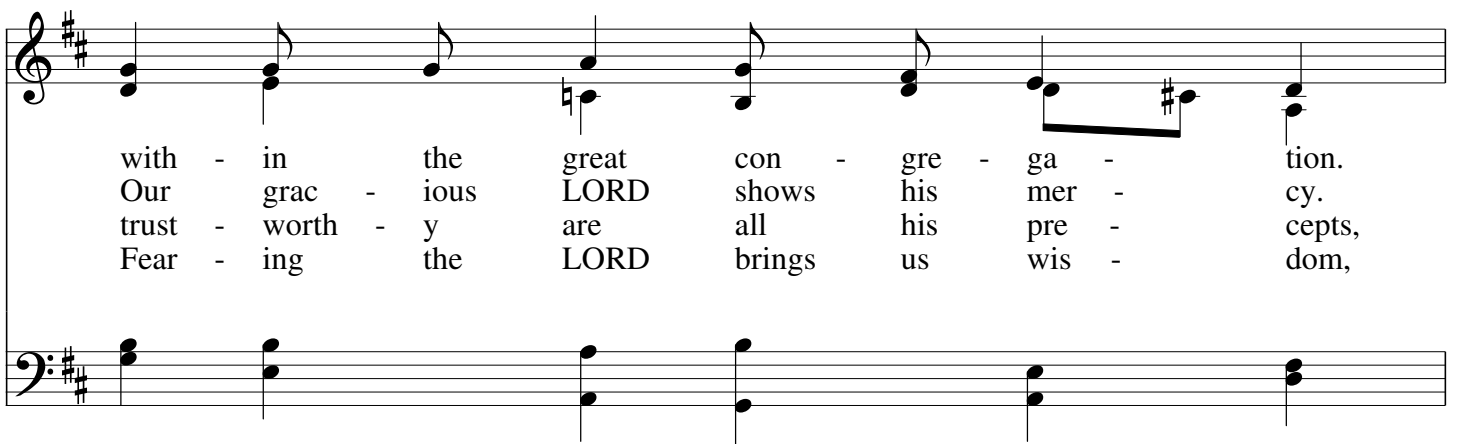

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. Al - le - lu - ia! Thanks I'll ren - der with all my be - ing to the LORD
2. His glor - ious works are ma - jes - tic; his jus - tice ev - er shall en - dure.
3. He shows his power to his peo - ple in giv - ing them the na - tions' wealth.
4. He gives his peo - ple re - demp - tion, he stands be - hind his prom - is - es,

a - mong the god - ly who are gath - ered
All shall re - call his man - y won - ders.
His hand - i - work is truth and jus - tice;
his ho - ly name is to be hon - oured.

with - in the great con - gre - ga - tion.
Our grac - ious LORD shows his mer - cy.
trust - worth - y are all his pre - cepts,
Fear - ing the LORD brings us wis - dom,

Great are the deeds the LORD has done,
Those who have feared him he will feed;
re - main - ing firm for ev - er - more,
from which all un - der - stand - ing comes.

pon - dered by ev - ery - one who loves them.
his cov - e - nant he will re - mem - ber.
per - formed in truth and in up - right - ness.
His prais - es shall en - dure for ev - er.