

Psalm 112

Geneva, 1562

♩ = 80

Al - le - lu - ia! Blest be the per - son
Rich - es and wealth are in his dwell - ing;
The right - eous shall stand firm for ev - er;
To all the poor he's free - ly giv - en;

who fears the LORD and finds ful - fil - ment
his jus - tice shall en - dure for ev - er.
the just will ev - er be re - mem - bered.
his right - eous - ness en - dures for ev - er;

in fol - low - ing dark - ness his com - mand - ments.
Light pierc - es dark - ness for the right - eous.
He has no fear of ev - il tid - ings;
his might is to be held in hon - our.

His pro - gen - y will come to pow - er
Quick to show just - ice and great mer - cy,
He with firm heart the LORD is trust - ing;
The wick - ed sees it and is ang - ry;

ov - er the land; the gen - er - a - tion
 he flour - ish - es who shares his bount - y;
 he will not fear; his heart is stead - fast.
 he grinds his teeth and he will van - ish;

of right - eous ones are ev - er bless - ed.
 in all he does his ways are just - ice.
 He'll live to see his foes' de - struc - tion.
 his as - pir - a - tions come to no - thing.