

Psalm 113

Tune: Strasbourg, Geneva, 1542; Geneva, 1551

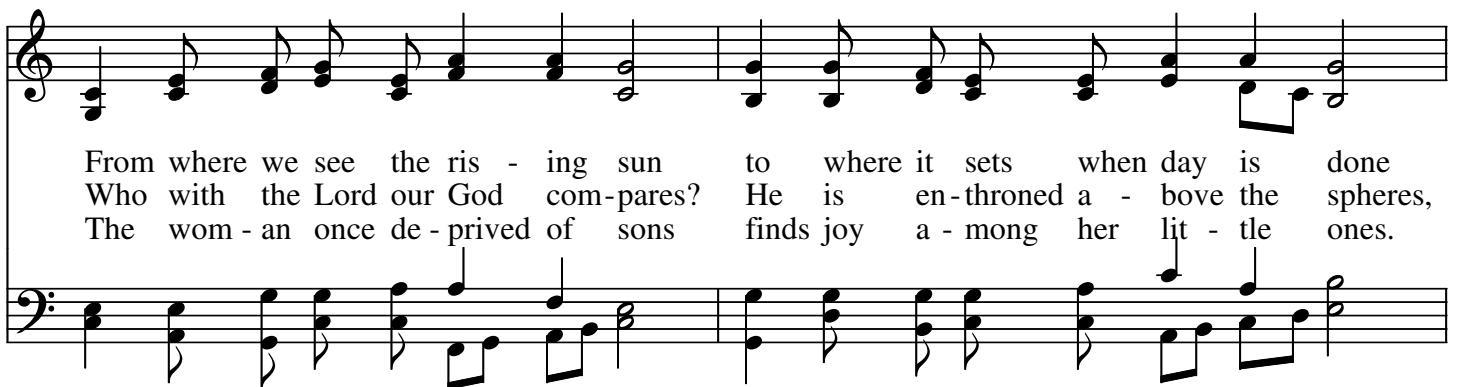

$\text{♩} = 75$

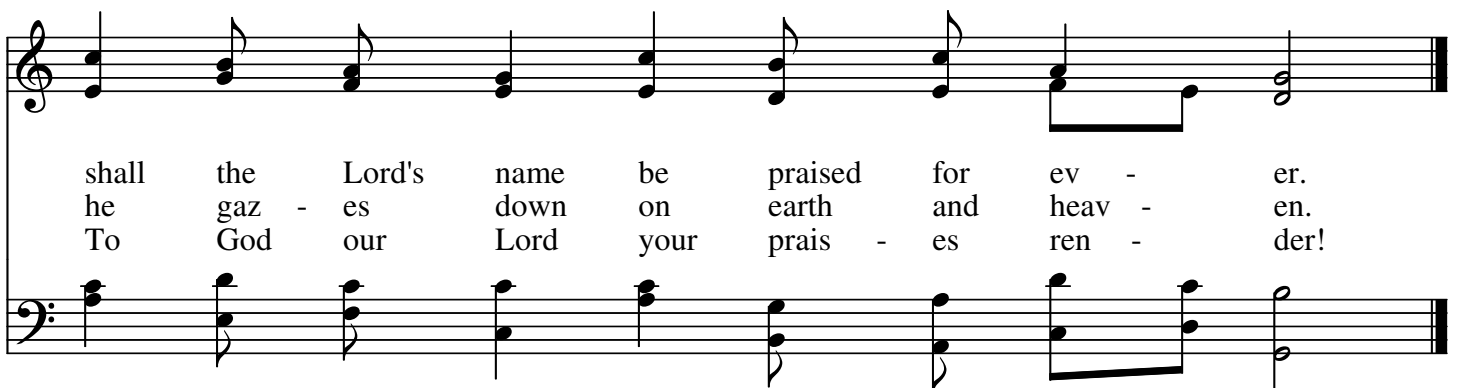

1. Sing praise, you serv - ants of the Lord, and praise his name with one ac - cord.
2. A - bove all na - tions is the Lord ex - alt - ed and by all a - dored;
3. The poor he rais - es up in grace, the need - y to a high - er place,

Blest be the Lord's name now and ev - er.
his glo - ry far sur - pass - es heav - en.
and lets them sit in prince - ly splen - dour.

From where we see the ris - ing sun to where it sets when day is done
Who with the Lord our God com - pares? He is en - throned a - bove the spheres,
The wom - an once de - prived of sons finds joy a - mong her lit - tle ones.

shall the Lord's name be praised for ev - er.
he gaz - es down on earth and heav - en.
To God our Lord your prais - es ren - der!