

Psalm 119:1-16

Geneva, 1551

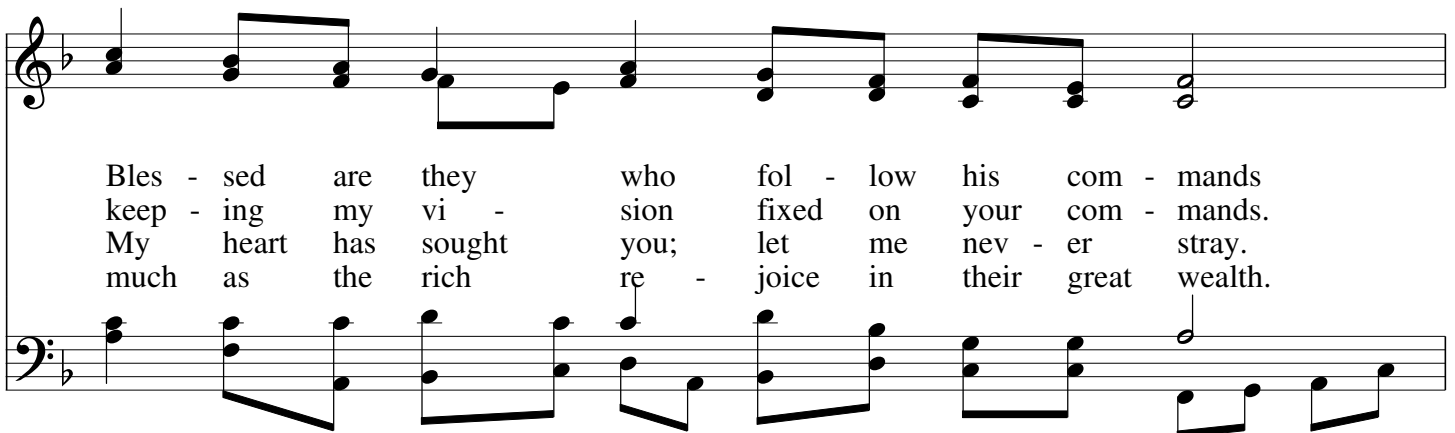

♩ = 75

1. How blest are they whose way is with - out blame,
2. May all my ways be stead - fast in your word.
3. How can the young keep pure in all their ways?
4. My lips re - count the laws your mouth de - clares.

who walk with - in the law the Lord has giv - en.
Then I will not by shame be ov - er - tak - en,
On - ly by liv - ing as your word di - rects them.
I take great joy in fol - low - ing your stat - utes,

Bles - sed are they who fol - low his com - mands
keep - ing my vi - sion fixed on your com - mands.
My heart has sought you; let me nev - er stray.
much as the rich re - joice in their great wealth.

and, shun - ning ev - il, seek him with their whole hearts.
 So with a faith - ful heart I'll ev - er praise you,
 Your word with - in my heart has found a dwell - ing.
 Up - on your pre - cepts I, while med - i - tat - ing,

Do - ing no wrong, they fol - low in his ways.
 when you have taught me all your just de - crees.
 Prais - es are due to you, O LORD a - bove.
 con - sid - er and de - light in your de - crees;

You have com - mand - ed that we keep your pre - cepts.
 I'll keep your stat - utes; please do not for - sake me!
 Teach me to keep the law that you have giv - en.
 O that your word I might not be ne - glect - ing.
