5. Your serv - ant treat with gen - er - o - si - ty
6. Those who re - bel a - gainst your ho - ly word
7. When I am low, re - vive me by your word.
8. Keep me from walk - ing path - ways of de - ceit, that I may live your words with full de - vo - tion.

take from my sight with all their scorn - ful mock - ing,
I told you of my ways and you re - spond - ed;
and through your ho - ly law to me be grac - ious.

Op - en my eyes that I might see your law.
for I have faith - full - y kept your de - crees.
teach me to keep your stat - utes in my heart.
I choose the way of truth; I love your laws.

Though in your land I live as but a strang - er,
 Though princ - es plot mal - i - cious - ly a - gainst me,
 Make me to grasp the pat - tern of your pre - cepts
 For I have held fast to your tes - ti - mon - ies,

do not with - hold your pre - cepts from my eyes.
 yet will your serv - ant pon - der your com - mands.
 that I may know the won - ders you have wrought.
 So let me not be put to ut - ter shame.

My soul with fer - vour longs for your com - mand - ments.
 I take de - light in heed - ing your in - struc - tion.
 My soul is griev - ing; may your word up - lift me.
 You've freed my heart to fol - low your com - mand - ments.
