

Psalm 119:113-128

Geneva, 1551

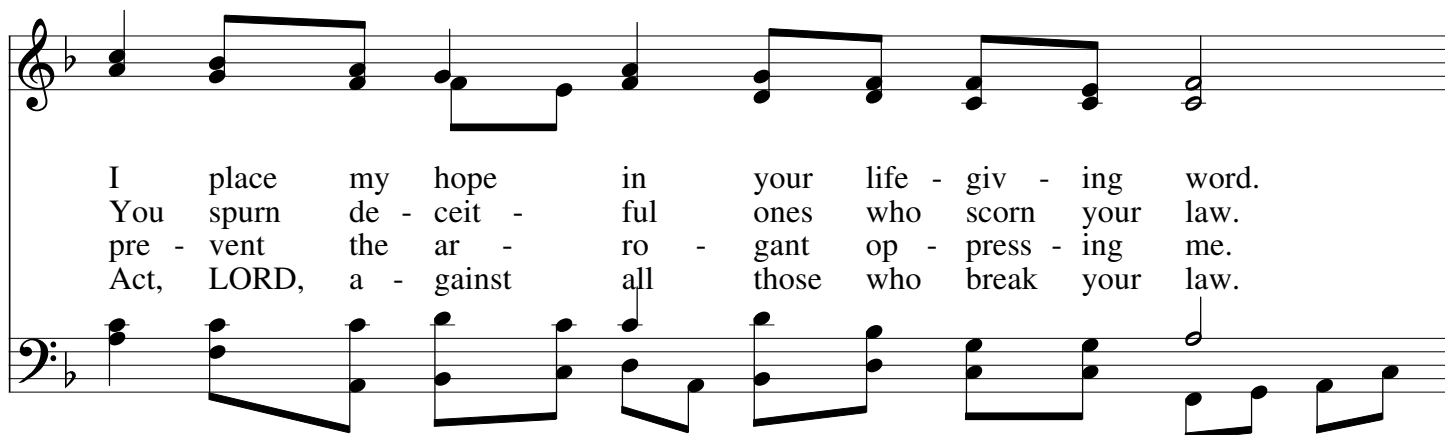

♩ = 75

29.Div - id - ed hearts I hate, yet in my heart
30.Up - hold and keep me, and I will be safe;
31.I've done what's right; let me not be op - pressed.
32.I am your serv - ant; grant me clar - i - ty

I love your law. You are my shield and re - fuge;
my eyes are fixed up - on your ho - ly stat - utes.
De - fend the wel - fare of your faith - ful serv - ant;
that I might un - der - stand all your in - struc - tions.

I place my hope in your life - giv - ing word.
You spurn de - ceit - ful ones who scorn your law.
pre - vent the ar - ro - gant op - press - ing me.
Act, LORD, a - gainst all those who break your law.

Off with the wick - ed ones that I might fol - low
 Like dross are all earth's wick - ed who re - ject you,
 My eyes have failed from watch - ing for your prom - ise
 Your wise com - mand - ments I have sure - ly trea - sured;

God's law. Sus - tain me by your prom - ised word, there - fore I deep - ly love all your com - mands.
 and for your sav - ing word to be ful - filled.
 more pre - cious are they than the fin - est gold.

so I will live. Let not my hope be van - quished.
 Tremb - ling in awe, your stat - utes do I hon - our.
 Show me your stead - fast love; teach me your stat - utes.
 Spurn - ing de - cep - tion, I live by your pre - cepts.
