

Psalm 145

Geneva, 1562

Dedicated to Dr. Jacob Ellens on the occasion of his retirement

1. My God and King, I'll tell a - broad your fame,
2. Up - on the splen - dour of your maj - es - ty
3. To ev - ery - thing the LORD's love is dis - played,
4. Your king - dom through e - tern - i - ty is sure,
5. When we're in need, your boun - ty you will bring,

and I will ev - er bless your ho - ly name.
and on your works I'll pon - der cease - less - ly.
and his com - pas - sion flows to all he made.
your reign for gen - er - a - tions shall en - dure.
quell - ing the hun - ger of each liv - ing thing.

From day to day I'll bless your ma - jes - ty,
Your might - y won - ders we will cel - e - brate,
Your man - y works will give you thanks and praise;
His prom - is - es the LORD will yet main - tain;
The LORD works right - eous - ness in all his ways

and praise your name through all e - tern - i - ty.
 and I will tell a - broad your mar - vels great.
 your faith - ful ones will bless your ho - ly ways.
 his grace ex - tends through - out his vast do - main.
 and kind - ness shows to those in ev - ery place.

Great is the LORD and worth - y of our prais - es;
 They'll cel - e - brate your good - ness ov - er - flow - ing,
 They shall re - count your king - dom's end - less glo - ry,
 The LORD up - holds all peo - ple who are fall - ing
 The LORD is near to all who call up - on him,
 6.To those who love him GOD of - fers pro - tec - tion,

great is his name, sur - pass - ing earth - ly plac - es.
 and sing a - loud your right - eous - ness all - know - ing.
 and of your might - y power re - cite the sto - ry,
 and those bowed down to lof - ty heights is call - ing.
 to all who, seek - ing truth, re - ly up - on him.
 but on the wick - ed he will rain de - struc - tion.

Your works are told to ev - ery gen - er - a - tion,
 The LORD is mer - ci - ful and ver - y grac - ious, so that all peo - ple know your deeds of won - der
 To you our eyes look with an - ti - ci - pa - tion,
 He meets the needs of all of them who fear him,
 My mouth will praise the LORD, and now to - geth - er, your might - y acts through - out the whole cre - a - tion.

slow to be an - gry, full of lov - ing kind - ness.
and your ma - jes - tic king - dom's glor - ious splen - dour.
and you pro - vide us food in prop - er sea - son.
hear - ing and sav - ing those who will re - vere him.
all liv - ing crea - tures, praise his name for ev - er!
