

Psalm 146

Geneva, 1562

♩=70

1. Praise the LORD; sing al - le - lu - ia! O my soul, sing forth his praise.
2. Put no trust in might-y princ-es, nor mis - place your con - fi - dence
3. Those who in the God of Jac - ob seek for help find hap - pi - ness;
4. He keeps faith with us for ev - er, just - ice gives to the op - pressed.
5. Our LORD rais - es up the low - ly; our LORD loves the right-eous ones.

Prais-es will my voice be chant - ing to the LORD through all my days.
in the fleet - ing ways of mor - tals, who pro - vide no sure de - fence.
they whose hope is in the LORD God find that he is quick to bless.
He feeds those who suf - fer hung - er, com-forts all who are dis - tressed,
Our LORD watch-es ov - er strang - ers, wid - ows and the or - phaned ones.

From verse 5 repeat last two musical lines for verse 6.

To my God my lips shall give songs of praise while yet I live.
They re - turn to earth at death; their best plans are but a breath.
For the heaven and earth he made and the sea's foun - da - tions laid.
set - ting cap - tive peo - ple free, op - ens eyes that can-not see.
But all those of wick-ed ways, he cuts short their sin - ful days.
6. Our LORD reigns for ev - er more, Zi - on's God. Al - le - lu - ia!
